

ROBERT GORDON

POTTERS SINCE 1945

Spring / Summer 2019

Year in Review

2019 was our most innovative and creative year to date. We've loved making exciting new products, pushing our boundaries and working with some wonderful people the world over. It's times like this at Robert Gordon that we look forward to sharing it with you the most.

Australian Made Basins

This past year saw the much anticipated release of our beautiful new Australian made basins. Two years of trialling, testing and making have gone into the development of the collection. Each piece is individually handmade, glazed, fully vitrified and high fired and available in six reactive style glazes; a true statement piece for your bathroom. Released at this year's Denfair, the Robert Gordon Interiors stand was awarded best medium stand and our rectangular basin, best Australian product.

Forager in New York

We were excited to see our Forager collection grace the tables of one of New York's most exciting restaurant - Chinese Tuxedo. Chinese Tuxedo, is a contemporary Chinese restaurant set in a former opera house on historic Doyers Street in downtown New York City. As Broadsheet details - 'Opening a Chinese restaurant in the middle of Chinatown is a bold move, even by New York standards. But Eddy Buckingham is on a mission to make locals look at the cuisine differently'. Robert Gordon has proudly supplied the restaurant with our Australian made pieces, from the very beginning. Forager is the latest in a long line of new and exciting pieces, perfect for Chinese Tuxedo's innovative menu.

Robert's Paintings

Robert Gordon has been a potter and a painter nearly all his life. Since winding down on work at the pottery and moving into retirement, he has found more time to once again pursue his art. An abstract expressionist at heart, Robert's pieces are full of colour and movement. His paintings are set to be shown in New York, alongside his latest ceramic design - the Forager collection, for release with our partners Steelite international. His landscapes also feature within the pages of this new catalogue.

Our Story

Around forty years ago, Robert 'Andy' Gordon walked into a ten by eight foot tin shed, picked up a lump of clay and turned his potter's wheel. The 'Pack Track Pottery' was born. But the story and inspiration for Robert Gordon dates long before 1979 and a rickety home made studio.

More than sixty years of heritage and three generations of potters. Robert Gordon. Proud of its past. Its future; fired with imagination.

Andy's mother, the renowned Australian potter June Dyson, set up her studios in 1945. June formed a formidable partnership with her husband Colin who became the company's business director. It was June's second son Andy, who showed most interest in ceramics, helping out in the studio from his early twenties.

It was inevitable that Andy would one day follow in his mother's footsteps. And having married his English wife Barbara, the couple set about moulding their dream.

By 1987 it was time for the company to expand. A factory in Pakenham was bought and Robert Gordon had grown from a tin shed with a dirt floor to a large purpose built headquarters.

It was also time to bring new staff into the business. Andy and Barbara didn't have far to look, their four children Hannah, Kate, Bobby and Sam all joined the business. History had repeated.

Twenty years later and the children are an integral part of the company. Each one playing a different and vital role, helping to shape Robert Gordon today.

To keep up with the times and the demand, RGA is not only a manufacturer of bespoke Australian made pottery these days but an importer too. Designs dreamed up at our Pakenham HQ are sent off to China to be made into the pieces that become part of the ever more popular collections we are so proud of.

More than sixty years of heritage and three generations of potters. Robert Gordon. Proud of its past. Its future; fired with imagination.
