

Tjanpi Desert Weavers

JULY 28 – AUG 26, 2018

Tjanpi Desert Weavers

Tjanpi Desert Weavers is a social enterprise of the Ngaanyatjarra Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara (NPY) Women's Council created to enable women in remote central deserts to earn their own income from fibre art.

Tjanpi represents more than 400 Aboriginal women artists from 26 remote communities on the NPY lands. The NPY lands cover approximately 350,000 square kms across the tri-state (WA, SA, NT) border region of Central Australia.

“It is good work, women’s work. Even the oldest women make baskets. The young kungkawara (adolescent) girls also make baskets. All the generations of women make baskets now and we feel assured that women will continue making baskets long after we are dead and gone. We women are all basket makers now! Basket making is a great form of income-earning for us, yet it is a very pleasant occupation as well... what better kind of work is there?... It is strong and important work. We are happy doing it.”
