

Answers

1. Answers will vary.
2. Since he referred to America as his native country, it is clear he was a citizen. Answers will vary as to the citizenship of each student.
3. When a bell rings, it demands the attention of those who hear it, both near by and far away. These words can also show that Smith believed freedom was available to all who heard of it, no matter where they were in America.
4. Smith refers in the previous verse to his fathers, or ancestors, and to the Pilgrims. It would seem logical that he considered them some of the noble free. Answers will vary.
5. Possible answers: world-wide, well-known, beloved, adopted, large, private, American, believable, good, pretty, real, shrewd, Western, majestic, etc.
6. To get your student started:
 1. The sun is yellow, and the colors in the picture are yellow and orange, showing that the area is hot, like the sun. The area looks like a desert that is dry and sandy, with clouds of dust kicked up by the animals, giving a hazy look to the picture. Other answers will vary.
 2. The picture has white throughout, showing the falling snow. There is also snow on the ground. The cowboys are dressed warmly, and the plants and trees look very wintry. The horse's tail is slightly blowing in the breeze, indicating there may be a cold wind. Other answers will vary.
 3. Answers will vary.
7. Spelling Scramble answers are in the appendix.
8. grim/'y, at/tack/'ing, red/'brick, young/'est, glo/'ri/ous, grass/'y, heav/'y, thrill/'ing fright/'en/ing, flick/'er/ing, im/pos/'ing, per/'il/ous
 • attacking, thrilling, frightening, flickering, and imposing are participles that can act as adjectives.
9. Spelling Search answers are in the appendix.
10. Yes.
11. a, a, d, e, e, e, d
12. There are six time zones in the United States.
13. Answers will vary but might include things like New Year's celebrations, various times TV programs can be seen, professional game times, timing of telephone calls, and so forth.
14. 11 a.m.; 1 p.m.
15. 2 p.m.; 1 p.m.
16. 7 a.m.; 10 a.m.
17. 6 p.m.; 10 p.m.
18. To get your student started:
 1. The colors of the picture are blue, gray, white, and gold. These are mostly cool colors that would indicate cold weather. They are also dull, not bright, showing that the sun is blocked somewhat by the falling snow. The trees seem somewhat bare, and the plants on the ground look shriveled and not brightly colored, showing that the cold weather has affected them. Other answers will vary.
 2. The cowboys are dressed very warmly with heavy coats with fur-lined collars and what appear to be gloves, showing the cold's effect. The horse's tail is slightly blowing in the breeze, indicating there may be a cold wind. Other answers will vary.
 3. Answers will vary.
19. Answers to the Unity Restored Word Scramble are in the appendix.