

Musik at Home

You • Your Child • Your Schedule

Progress Tracker: Family Music for Ages 4 - 7

Unit One: My Home Place

In the table below, track your child's progress through four repetitions of the same class.
Remember to look for improvement and advancement, not perfection!

For each class, record a number that you feel represents your child's response and activity:

- 1: My child did not engage
- 2: My child showed a little interest
- 3: My child attempted the activity some of the time
- 4: My child attempted the activity most of the time
- 5: My child actively engaged and participated

Name: _____

Date: __|__|__

My Child's Response & Activity	#1	#2	#3	#4
My child moves freely with voluntary control.
My child is able to follow sequences of movement activity.
My child consciously directs his listening ear toward the sounds heard in class.
Listening to the music in class evokes creative imagination.
My child willingly sings with me.
My child will sing on his or her own.
My child attempts to quote rhymes chants or poems (watch for progress on this both inside and outside of class)
My child shows control while playing simple instruments (this skill is refined over time).
My child can tap his knees with his fingers while keeping a steady beat?
My child follows and participates with age appropriate writing and reading activities in class?
Total

Notes: